

TUESDAY DECEMBER 13. 1743.

Rome, November 23.

HE Differences between this Court and that of Vienna are at last happily adjusted; and her Hungarian Majesty has declared, that she is ready to receive the Nuncios desired for Vienna and Bruffels; and has granted the Exequatur for the Cardinal Archbishop of Milan, about which we were in so much Pain. There is certainly some Affair of very great Importance transacting in this City, as we guess from the mighty Harry several Foreign Ministers are in, and the affected Tranquility of a certain Palace; where private Conferences, notwithstanding, are held every Night. Some guess one Thing, some another; but such as have the Reputation of being the greatest Politicians, agree, that it concerns the first Cardinal named in the last Promotion, whose Quality has been so industriously concealed; and very considerable Wagers have been laid, that he is declared in less than a Week; tho', as yet, nobody pretends to know who he is, or so much as whether he be of this, or the other Side of the Mountains.

Fans, November 26. General Count de Gages, upon the warm Remonstrances made to him on the Subject of his mounting the Cannon upon the Ramparts of Pefaro, and threatening to complain of it to the Austrians, as a Breach of the Neutrality of the Ecclesiastical State, has ordered them to be withdrawn, and contents himself with causing the Camp he has in that Neighbourhood to be fortified in the best Manner possible. Some People of Discernment, however, fancy, that there is an Understanding between him and Prince Lobkowitz, notwithstanding the greatest Pains is taken to conceal it; and argue from thence, that there is some Treaty on the Carpet, by which the Affairs in Italy are to be regulated to the Satisfaction of all Parties. But this, after all, may possibly be no more than a Conjecture, which derives its Credit from the Interest we have in wishing it to be true.

Turin, November 30. The King has visited Suza, Coni, Demont, and all the advanc'd Posts of his Dominions; and is now return'd hither perfectly well satisfied with the Situation in which he found them. He has also reviewed his Troops, which were in excellent Order; and on his Return to this Capital, met with the agreeable News of 1,400,000 Crowns in Portugal Gold being landed for his Service at Genoa; which gave him the more Satisfaction, as there had been a Stop put to the Loan he was negotiating there on the Credit of this City, and that after the Subscription was full. His Majesty is certainly about undertaking some Enterprize of the last Importance, in which the Count de Suza is to bear a considerable Part. He is gone to Nice, and is assembling there a Body of Troops; but with what View, remains an impenetrable Secret. As to what has been given out of a Design upon Final, it must be every Way ill founded. For first, 1500 or 2000 Men would be sufficient for that Purpose; whereas he is assembling 10 or 12,000. Next, we are pretty certain that such Measures have been taken, as cannot fail of procuring the Execution of the Treaty of Worms in an amicable Way. And lastly, there is very great Appearance that the Troops under Count Suza are intended for an Embarkation; perhaps they may be design'd to prevent the Execution of some French Projects; but whatever they are design'd for, a Fortnight or Three Weeks must reveal the Mystery.

Prague, December 7. The States of the Kingdom have given Directions for putting it into the best State of Defence possible; they have likewise directed the necessary Reparations of this City to be made with the greatest Speed, and have also settled the Funds for restoring its Fortifications. Twelve Regiments of Foot, and seven of Horse, are to take Winter-Quarters this Year in Moravia and Silesia, whither all the Magazines that had been left in this Kingdom have been transported. According to the new Regulations, we shall, by the 1st of March, have a Body of 36,000 Regular Troops, half'd and officer'd by the Natives of Bohemia; so that we shall be in no danger of falling again into the Distress from which we were so lately recovered.

Vienna, December 5. There could be nothing more magnificent than the Feast of the Knights of the Golden Fleece on the last of last Month. The Grand Duke sat at the Head of the Table, as Grand Master, attended by the Herald, Secretary, and Chancellor of the Order; and with him dined the following Knights Companions, placed in their Order of Seniority; viz.

1. Count Michael John d'Althan.

2. Prince Aubrofe d'Avelino.
3. The Marquis John de Pefora.
4. Count Guido d'Althan.
5. John Basilus de Castelv, Count de Cervellon.
6. Count John William de Wurmbbrand.
7. Count Leopold Victorinus de Windisgratz.
8. Count John Francis Godfrey de Dietrichstein.
9. Prince John Winceslaus de Lichtenstein.
10. Prince Henry d'Aversberg.
11. Prince Erach Emderick de Sax Hildberghausen.
12. Prince Joseph Adam de Schwarzenberg.
13. Count Joseph de Monte Santo.
14. Prince Charles Alexander of Lorrain.
15. Duke Leopold of Holstein Sleswick.
16. Count Rodolph Sigismund de Zinzendorf.
17. Duke Leopold Charles Joseph d'Arenberg.

I R E L A N D.

Dublin, December 6. Last Saturday Night we had the greatest Fog that was ever seen in this City, which occasion'd several Accidents. A Horse and Chaise with two Gentlemen, fell into the River at George's Quay, but the People were saved; a Woman fell into the River at the Coal Quay, and a Man near Essex Bridge, and was drown'd; and a Gentleman fell into a Hole near the Little Green, and broke his Leg.

One Allum, a Butcher, having some Words with Mr. Barret in Patrick Street, struck him upon the Head with his Steel, and fractur'd his Skull. Mr. Barret died on Sunday last, and Allum was thereupon committed to Newgate.

The Money given to the Jury on the Trial between Mr. Annesley and the Earl of Anglesea, was, by the unanimous Consent of the Gentlemen, left to the Disposal of Sir Thomas Taylor, Bart. their Foreman; who was pleas'd to bestow it on the Charitable Infirmary on the Inn's Quay, for the Relief of the sick and wounded Poor, taken care of in that Hospital.

On Thursday the 1st Instant, Divine Service was performed in the Cathedral Manner at St. Andrew's Church, in the most elegant and exact Manner, by a very grand Band of Musick. A very excellent Sermon, suitable to the Occasion, was preached by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Ossory. Their Graces the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire were present on this Occasion; as were most of the Nobility, and Persons of Distinction, in this City.

Since the above Performance, which was for the Benefit of Mercer's Hospital, a Lady, who desired to be unknown, sent 50 l. to John Rochfort, Esq; Treasurer to the Phil-harmonick Society, for the Use of the poor Sick in the said Hospital.

On Saturday last the House of Commons resolv'd itself into a Committee of the whole House, to take into Consideration the Petition of the Merchants and Traders of the City of Dublin, whose Names are thereunto subscribed, in Behalf of themselves, and other the Merchants and Traders of this Kingdom; and after some Time spent therein, Mr. Speaker resum'd the Chair.

Mr. Chaigneau reported from the Committee, that they had come to a Resolution in the Matter to them refer'd, which he read in his Place, and afterwards deliver'd in at the Table, where the same was again read, and agreed to by the House, and is as follows.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Petitioners have fully proved the Allegations of their Petition.

Order'd, That Leave be given to bring in Heads of one or more Bill or Bills for Relief of the Petitioners; and that Mr. Chaigneau, Mr. Recorder of Dublin, and Mr. Alderman Pearson, do prepare and bring in the same.

L O N D O N.

The Dove, Cooper, from Newfoundland to Portugal; is taken off Vienna.

On Friday last Valentine Austin, who committed a Robbery a few Days before at the Crown Inn at Radham, was taken at Alesham in Norfolk, and committed to the Castle. He some Time since list'd for a Marine, by the Name of Henry-Valentine Berredage, and afterwards deserted.

This Day the Right Hon. the Lord Chancellor will hold the Third General Seal at Lincoln's-Inn Hall after Michaelmas Term.

To-morrow the Lords Commissioners, and others, for the Affairs of Chelsea Hospital, will meet in Killigrew Court, Scotland Yard, in order to admit several worn-out Soldiers into the Pension of the said Hospital.

Yesterday Mr. Walker, a noted Sedan Maker in Charles Street, near Grosvenor Square, died suddenly.

The same Day No. 21,125, was drawn a Prize of 500 l.

A Fire broke out Yesterday Morning in Bell-Yard adjoining to King-Street, Westminster, which burnt part of the House; but by timely Assistance was happily extinguish'd.

A young Woman tolerably well dress'd was Yesterday taken out of the Canal in St. James's Park, and afterwards expos'd to publick View in St. Margaret's Church-yard, Westminster.

Yesterday Mary Cawdell was committed to Wood-street Compter by Mr. Alderman Benn, for stealing out of the House of Mr. Charles Corbett, of Fleetstreet, Bookfeller, two Damask Gowns, and other wearing Apparel.

As was also Thomas Lent to Bridewell, for pilfering a Parcel of Sugar, the Property of some Person unknown, from off the Keys, on Oath of Ebenezer Hartley, a Constable of the Custom-House.

This Day a Court of Admiralty is to be held at the Old Bailey, for the Trial of several Prisoners indicted for Murder, and other Offences, committed on the High Seas.

Yesterday the Sessions ended at the Old Bailey, when Sixteen Prisoners were tried, Four of whom were capitally convicted; viz.

Samuel Moses, Michael Jude, and Solomon Athern, three Jews, who were brought by Habeas from Ipswich for a Burglary.

Jacob Condou, for being seen at large before the Expiration of the Time for which he was order'd to be transported.

Two were found Guilty of Manslaughter, and, with two others, were burnt in the Hand, Six were cast for Transportation. And four Acquitted.

The above Four, with the Nine who were convicted before, receiv'd Sentence of Death.

Mr. Wilson, of the oldest State-Lottery Office at Charing-Cross, has desired us to assure the Publick, that he will continue to supply the Town, as usual, during the whole Course of the Drawing (which begins each Day at Nine o'Clock) with undrawn Tickets and Shares of Tickets, as well as Chances, every Morning before Nine, and Evening after Four o'Clock, warranted undrawn, with the same Safety as if purchased before the Lottery began drawing. The most ready Money will be given there for Blanks and Prizes, and the exactest Accounts of the Drawing kept for the Inspection of Adventurers.

The Shares he continues to dispose of, till farther Notice, at the following Prices; viz.

|                   | l. | s. | d.     |
|-------------------|----|----|--------|
| Half a Ticket, at | —  | —  | 2 10 0 |
| Quarters,         | —  | —  | 1 5 0  |
| Eighths,          | —  | —  | 0 13 0 |
| Sixteenths,       | —  | —  | 0 6 6  |

No. 18,014, a Prize of 3000 l. which was sold in the Time of Drawing, and came up in less than an Hour after. No. 53,764, a Prize of Five Thousand Pounds, the greatest Prize sold or shar'd at any Office in London, and several others of 1000 l. 500 l. 100 l. &c. were sold and shar'd by J. Hazard, Tickets, and Shares of Tickets, and Chances, are sold at the lowest Prices, warranted undrawn, at the State-Lottery Office under the Royal Exchange, kept by J. Hazard, and at his other Office fronting Stationers Hall, near Ludgate; where Tickets are register'd at Six Pence a Number, and enter'd at both Offices. The Numerical and Register Books at these Offices are the most correct and authentic, two Clerks being appointed to take the Numbers in the Hall for that Purpose, and the Books being check'd together every Evening, and afterwards examin'd by the Commissioners Accounts. Tickets are examin'd in the cheapest Manner, as in former Lotteries. The Money for Blanks and Prizes is paid there as soon as drawn. Letters, Post paid, will be duly answer'd. Schemes given gratis.

As it has been found by Experience, that the examining during the Hours of drawing the Lottery, is too great an Interruption to the Posting the Numerical Book correctly, therefore Messieurs Lowe and Berry take all possible Care to avoid it. On this Account, all those who wish to be informed with Certainty of their Success, go (after Three o'Clock) to their Office in Stationers-Arley, Ludgate-street.—That the Town may not be obliged to buy of Strangers, and perhaps have Counterfeit Tickets imposed on them; they sell each Morning and Evening Tickets, Shares, and Chances, warranted undrawn, in the cheapest Methods; and their Demand encreases exceedingly, as every one is sure of having the Money (there) as soon as drawn, Blank or Prize.

OSBORNE's Shop in Gray's-Inn,

(Price Ten Shillings)

THE Third and Fourth VOLUMES of BIBLIOTHECA HARLEIANA.

The Office which has been undesignedly given, by setting a Price upon the Harleian Catalogue, makes it necessary to lay before the Publick, the Reason for which a Method so unusual is taken; which is not to extort from the Learned and Curious any extraordinary Expence, but to prevent a large Catalogue from being wantonly demanded by those to whom it is of no Use, which cannot be permitted without great inconvenience; there being not many more printed of these Volumes, than will complete the Setts of those who have been pleased to purchase the former: It is therefore proposed, that every Gentleman who shall lay down the Price of these Volumes, shall be at Liberty to return them within three Months after the Day of Sale, and receive Books in Exchange to the same Value; or, if it be desired, his Money.

Of the Day of Sale timely Notice will be given in the Publick Papers, that those Gentlemen who are too distant to favour us with their Presence, may have Time to send their Commissions.

N. B. The First and Second Volumes of the Harleian Catalogue may be had. Price 10 s.

The Sale of the Third and Fourth Volumes will begin
Time in February.
